DETAILED ACTION

Claim Objections

1. Claims 1-8 are objected to because of the following informalities:

(1) claim 1, line 3, "time count means of means requiring" should be – time count means requiring --;

(2) claim 3, line 2, "time count means of means requiring" should be – time count means requiring --;

(3) claim 6, line2, "time count means of means requiring" should be – time count means requiring --.

Appropriate correction is required.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

2. The following is a quotation of the first paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall contain a written description of the invention, and of the manner and process of making and using it, in such full, clear, concise, and exact terms as to enable any person skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and use the same and shall set forth the best mode contemplated by the inventor of carrying out his invention.

3. Claims 1-8 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, because the specification, while being enabling for "date and time adjustment means for repeating date and time setting processing of acquiring the current date and time from each of an external apparatus having a function of outputting the current date and time", does not reasonably provide enablement for "date and time adjustment means for repeating date and time setting processing of acquiring the current date and time from each of an external apparatus having a function of outputting said time count means", for example in claim 1. The specification does not enable any person skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and use the invention commensurate in scope with these claims. The disclosure of the invention provides support for all the limitations of claim 1, 3 and 6, except for "date and time adjustment means for repeating date and time setting processing of acquiring the current date and time from each of an external apparatus having a function of outputting said time count means", it is never apparent in the disclosure as to whether the external apparatuses can output the "time count means" belonging internally to the printing device.

4. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

5. Claims 1-8 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

6. The claims are generally narrative and indefinite, failing to conform with current U.S. practice. They appear to be a literal translation into English from a foreign document and are replete with grammatical and idiomatic errors. Please see above examples, applicant is also required to properly punctuate the long limitation in the claims so that it can be properly interpreted.

7. The examiner has search the limitation "date and time adjustment means for repeating date and time setting processing of acquiring the current date and time from each of an external apparatus having a function of outputting the current date and time” and can not find any relevant prior art.
